Mr. A. Eachara Menon.—Do the Government consider the case of those who haveacted in other departments? Is their service taken into consideration?

Rama Varmah Tampuran.—There has been a further amendment to that vexed question. According to that for the purpose of seniority actingservice in a particular department is taken i. e., service that onehas put in the particular department in which he at present actswill alone be taken into consideration.

Mr. A. Eachara Menon.—In view of that amendment, will not the clerks of the Registration Department suffer by this rule?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—How will they be sufferers if that rule applies to them?

Mr. K. Ayyappan.—Will the seniority of the Registration clerks be affected by the incoming of the clerks from the Magisterial Department?

Rama Varmah Tampuran.—I cannot give a general answer to this question unless we know the particular individuals. I may say that this rule wasintroduced more or less on the basis of a discussion here in 1107.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—May I know why this order was given effect to the Magisterial Department alone?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—That was the point pressed here. Mr. Kannan Nayar promised that the clerks in the Magisterial Department who are unpassed will be given a lift as copyists in the RegistrationDepartment. The Hon'ble Member, who moved the motion, withdrew on this assurance. It is on the basis of that these rules came now.

Qualification, service, pay, etc., of typists in service.
